DOING GOOD: INSPIRATIONAL STORIES OF EVERYDAY AMERICANS AT HOME AND AT WORK

iUniverse, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Edited ed.. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Doing Good: Inspirational Stories of Everyday Americans at Home and at Work is a collection of profiles of people who have found a way to make a difference--serving their communities, helping friends and family, improving the quality of life and work for colleagues--doing what they can to make the world a better place. A few of them are famous or prominent, but most of them not known outside their own communities, including: -The modern-day Helen Keller. -The widowed great-grandmother who lives alone in the Rocky Mountains and passes along her outdoors skills to children. -The college professor who spends his summers teaching poor Appalachian kids to use computers. -Top business executives using their time, money and skills to make a difference. -The Big City Forest man. -The best pickup basketball player in America. -The senior citizens who help other silver surfers learn to use the Internet. -The lady brewer. -The man who invented e-mail. These stories and more provide lessons for all Americans in how to work, how to play and how to live our lives to the fullest.
