6. State briefly what is known to you concerning the history of the Wycliffite versions of the Bible. What translations of Holy Scripture were made between the times of Wycliffe and the publication of our present Authorised Version; and what is known to you concerning its authorship and method of composition. From what point of view, affecting their legitimacy, may a distinction be drawn between the archaisms of the Authorised Version, those of Shakspeare, and those of Spensers Shepherds Kalendar and Faery Queene respectively

7. Indicate, and exemplify, such of the main changes in English orthoepy which have taken place since the time of Shakspeare, as seem removed beyond doubt.
